

Scholarships for “Film and Media Program” for August/September 2008!

Limited seats available!

India Study Abroad Center (ISAC) is offering 4 partial scholarships for the month of August 2008. These scholarships are restricted to the “Film and Media Program” only.

Priority will be given to:

- Students who demonstrate a keen interest in “Bollywood” the Indian Film Industry and who want to gain further experience in the industry.
- Who have some familiarity with Indian films and must be interested or currently pursuing film studies.
- Those who have had limited opportunity to travel abroad and no prior international travel experience

Scholarship Requirement

- Recipients of ISAC scholarships will be required to pay their own airfare, and any personal expenses as outlined on the program description pages.
- Recipients of partial scholarships are responsible for the remaining balance of ISAC program fees.
- Recipients must keep a program and cultural immersion journal to be submitted to ISAC at the end of the program. They must take photographs while abroad, that may be used on the ISAC website, and in ISAC publications.
- Recipients may also be required to write an article about their experience for ISAC newsletters or other publications.
- ISAC will ask recipients to act as campus representatives for future participants, and may be asked to attend study abroad fairs in their local area.

Deadlines for submission of completed applications (incomplete/ handwritten applications will not be considered)

Deadline of May 15th, 2008. Recipients will be notified within 7 working days.

Write to us at info@indiastudyabroad.org to receive the application forms.

The number of seats available under the scholarship scheme is limited and the decision of ISAC academic director would be final.
